Heartwood Peter Dawson Buckland

Heartwood considers what it means to be human in the Anthropocene—the age of humans. By rapidly reconstituting the atmosphere, oceans, soils, and the living world, are we cutting and shuffling ourselves and our relationships? In the face of such destruction, can we still find meaning? Good? Through evocations of places, creatures, people, and their impermanence, Peter Buckland invites readers to reflect on being in and of this world.
