Superguy (Superpowers Series) (Volume 1) T. Jackson King

Jeff Webster is a reluctant superhero. Ever since he was four years old he's been able to teleport himself to distant places, read minds and move stuff around with mind power. But growing up in Los Alamos, home of the atomic bomb and lots of scientists, taught him the dangers of standing out. With both parents dead, he holds down a simple job but wonders what he should do with his life. Help people in danger? Block terrorist schemes? Become famous for his unique abilities? Watching him is FBI Special Agent Janet Van Groot, newly assigned to monitor adult children of people who work at the national labs, in hopes of catching a hidden foreign spy. What happens after Jeff's first rescue effort leads him, Janet and the entire nation into a future no one could have expected.
