Mr. New Orleans: The Life of a Big Easy Underworld Legend Frenchy Brouillette, Matthew Randazzo V
Meticulously researched and supported by FBI records and official court documents, Mr. New Orleans is the story of how a shy Cajun altar boy from Marksville, Louisiana, became a championship bodybuilder, an unbeaten pro boxer, and finally a New Orleans criminal kingpin—without ever losing his affable nature. Simultaneously an action-packed true-crime memoir, (with a new twist on the Kennedy assassination) and an authentic street history of The Big Easy, here's the rags-to-racketeering story that could only have come from America's most infamous outlaw city.
