Adele: A Celebration of an Icon and Her Music Sarah-Louise James

Adele needs no introduction: her first album propelled her to fame; the second consolidated her position as a superstar, and 25, her most recent release, continues her record-setting tradition. At not even 30 years old, she has already been described in legendary terms. This paperback edition of Adele: A Celebration of an Icon and Her Music brings fans up to date on her life and work, with new photos and additional text. It explores the background and emotions behind Adele's bestselling, best-loved songs, and tells the fascinating story of the girl who was born to a single-parent teenager in North London.
