Backstreet Boys have achieved incredible success right around the world. From their humble beginnings performing at high schools across America, to vast stadium shows in front of thousands of people, they have followed their dreams and drawn strength from the loyalty of their fans.

Five unique and magnetic personalities, five outstanding talents. Each of the Boys could take the lead on his own, but together they are dynamite. But what are they really like? This book opens up the confidential files on these fantastically successful and famous young men:

Nick - the blond-haired, blue-eyed heartthrob, a practical joker with an artistic eye who is always plugged into computer games.

Brain - born with a heavenly voice and a passion for music, never without a basketball, and with the strength to overcome life's ups and downs.

Howie - personable and confident yet modest, an energetic dancer with a gift for taking the band's music to new audiences.

AJ - a romantic and unpredictable extrovert, with an eye for outrageous clothes, for whom life is always an adventure.

Kevin - the older brother of the group, ambitious and fearless in pursuit of his dreams.

This book gives the lowdown on each of the boys in detail: their early life, their individual talents, their thoughts on romance, success and what the future holds. Packed with great photographs, facts, funny stories and quotes from the boys, this is a must-have for every dedicated fan.
