Rancho La Brea: A Record of Pleistocene Life in California (Golden Anniversary Edition) Chester Stock

Published to commemorate the first scientific excavations that were begun in March of 1906. From book's Introduction: "The unique collection of fossils obtained from the asphalt deposits of Rancho La Brea has no parallel among the numerous records of past life of the earth brought to light by the paleontologists and geologist... [T]he collection from Rancho La Brea furnishes a basis for reconstruction of a remarkably clear picture of life as it existed in the Los Angeles region of Southern California in late geologic time."
