"He has an exciting way of shining new light on common subjects..."

Marguerite Ashton, Author

"Inherited Lies"

Michael Graves' unusual approach to poetic subjects spans the spectrum from the cerebral to the deeply erotic, and has won the hearts of thousands of readers. According to Graves, "Most people who read poetry want the truth to reach out through the words and grab them by the throat. They're looking for a portal through which to escape the mundane. What good is poetry if it can't provide that?"
