On the Hole Jeff Bacot, Jeffrey T. Bacot

On a golf course, everyone can hear you speak. Whiskey, women and work aren't the only topics of conversation either. A beautiful day for a beautiful game. Just a game of golf to flee the flames of life, to forge a friendship, find some meaning, feel redemption, follow dreams. It was just golf course talk between two guys at first, a series of dude discussions over drinks during the game, but conversations that would reveal long held secrets and forever define who they were, where they came from, what they stood for, why they existed and then spiral into a final perilous confrontation that would reveal the dark foe and frightening underbelly playing on the golf course all around them, near them, next to them; and on the hole, within them.
