Pebble Beach 18: The Best of the Best Golf Holes Rick Connelly

"An incredible insight of the great golf in Pebble Beach, it is a golfer's dream to play and experience the ultimate golf course." -Bob Scarpitto, President, California Seniors Golf Association

"A must read if you are going to play or have played the golf courses in Pebble Beach." -Roger Gunn, Golf Magazine Top 100 Teacher

In Pebble Beach and The Del Monte Forest there are seven incredible golf courses with five of the courses rated in the Americas Top 100 golf courses that include Pebble Beach Golf Links, Spyglass Hill, Cypress Point Club, Monterey Peninsula Country Club (Shore) and The Links at Spanish Bay. The other two courses, Monterey Peninsula Country Club (Dunes) and Poppy Hills are contenders and have been ranked on best 100 list. Every time we play a golf course, we all have our favorite holes and where they are located on the course. With 126 championship golf holes in Pebble Beach, you could write about a dozen holes on each golf course. I decided to pick holes on each of the courses and where it falls on the scorecard for the ultimate look at the Pebble Beach 18. The golf holes are not to be the longest or the toughest, but the ultimate set-up for golf course design and scenic enjoyment from the 126 holes. The idea was to create a par 72-golf course. The seamless combination of golf holes cannot be told in just words. For the enjoyment of all golfers, the book includes yardages from a multitude of tee boxes. The emphasis is on the extraordinary experience of the golf holes of the Pebble Beach 18. The story includes the legacy of the area, the vision, the clubs, the architects and the players, and of course playing of the hole that includes the feel, texture, and sensation of the moments. To define just 18-holes was a daunting task and would be naturally debated. To appease all golfers and critics we create the second 18. Enjoy your virtual tour of the elite golf holes and birds-eye view of the Number "1" Destination in Golf.
