Misha Holloway was born with a special gift, one the church does not understand. When she enters the ministry, her gift becomes more apparent. With her ability to see the past, present and future of people, she is cast out of the church. She begins on a journey of self-discovery of who she is as a minister and woman.

Bernard Taylor is a man with a personal struggle. On the outside, he is one of the biggest gospel artists in the country. Inwardly, he is in a desperate struggle trying to hold on to his faith while ministering to others. But, something keeps luring him back to Atlanta.

Being lead by the voice in her spirit, Misha's journey takes her to unimaginable places where she brings hope and correction. She continues her journey until an unexpected pregnancy stops her in her tracks. When these two paths cross, can these single ministers survive the obstacles they face or will they give up and turn their back on all they believe in?
