Pocket Full of Posies: A Tiny Book of Flowers to Cover Jennifer Cochrane

- Convenient 4"x6" mini book size, perfect for on-the-go coloring
- 48 unique hand-drawn flowers and swirling, floral-themed mandalas to color
- Images printed on only one side of the page- no bleed-through!

Take part in the adult coloring book craze that is sweeping the nation!

Roses are red.

Violets are blue.

Kids like to color,

And grown-ups do, too!

This little pocket-sized book (4"x6") is the perfect size for coloring during a work break, on the bus, or in the back of a lecture hall (did we say that out loud?).

48 beautiful flowery illustrations bloom inside, ranging from pansies to irises to dandelions, to made-up fantasy flowers (we like to call them rejects from God's suggestion box).

Coloring is a meditative hobby enjoyed by people of all ages. Our favorite tools to color with are colored pencils, but you can also use crayons, oil pastels, markers, or colored pens. If you are saturating the page with markers, though, you might want to put an extra blank paper or two under your drawing- just in case!
