For the Love of the Horse Volume IV (Horse Books) Amazing True Stories About the Horses We Love Ann Jamieson

A United States Equestrian Federation horse show judge and competitor who has been owned by horses most of her life, Ann Jamieson is uniquely qualified to tell the amazing true stories that comprise her horse books. From backyard pets to National Award winners, from mutts to Thoroughbreds and everything in between, Ann's books explore the timeless bond between horses and their people. The Chronicle of the Horse says "These books belong on every horse person's bookshelf." The Horsemen's Yankee Pedlar advises readers to "Pick up this gem of a book and revel in its riches," while top horse people such as Lendon Gray, Stacy Westfall, Georgina Bloomberg and Chester Weber count themselves as fans. In this volume:

Lisa Kelly is one of only three women who brave the most dangerous roads in North America as an Ice Road Trucker. She's also a horse lover with an incredible story.

Tina Konyot's ancestors performed in circuses; Tina is now an Olympic dressage rider. Find out how she brought out the best in a horse that few thought held any potential, and qualified for the London Olympics.

Boyd Martin and Phillip Dutton braved a burning barn and saved Neville Bardos. It was the second time Boyd saved Neville; in return Neville saved Boyd and his family.

What breed was the stunning stallion who won Reserve Champion Stallion at Dressage at Devon? No one would have ever guessed that Padré is an American Mustang. Read it all and more in Volume IV. Buy your copy now.
