A real-life memoir from the actor who played “The Most Interesting Man in the World” in the wildly popular television ads for Dos Equis.

Jonathan Goldsmith's memoir features stories about his truly fascinating life both in and out of Hollywood: getting shot by John Wayne, competing with Dustin Hoffman, drinking with Tennessee Williams, sailing the high seas with Fernando Lamas, and romancing many lovely ladies. Much more than a memoir, the book is a truly daring and bold tale, and a manifesto about taking chances, not giving up, making courageous choices, and living an adventurous life.
