Talking Tales: The Bright Red Tricycle Erica Graham

The bright red tricycle loves spending every day riding around with his boy Ryan. But when Ryan's dad brings home a new bicycle, the little red tricycle quickly finds himself on an unknown journey. Will the little red tricycle ever be ridden by Ryan again, or is he destined to rust away in a scrap yard? This story is a great tool for any parent or speech therapist. It explores the tale of the bright red tricycle while providing over 80 examples of the "r" sound in various word locations and blends to increase speech development. This book also includes tips for parents who are working with their child's speech at home.
