Family is not outdated! But can it still be done well?

In The New Vintage Family, Drenda shows you how to embrace God's design for family, and how to refashion your family while pursuing your destiny together. In a world that has traded the ability to mentor children God's way for a world of fast-paced instant gratification, we need real answers to the modern day struggles we face as parents.

Drenda combines her wit, humorous stories, and dynamic teaching to equip you with the tools you need to make parenting fun again. Learn to use the four pillars of family, to effectively communicate, and to fit the pieces of family mentorship, business, and home life together for success.
