Life Skills for the 21st Century: Building a Foundation for Success Suzanne Weixel, Faithe Wempen
Responsible living skills presented in an engaging and bold style.

Today's world asks students to balance a wide range of responsibilities — from succeeding in school, to building personal relationships, to beginning a career, to giving back to their community. Life Skills for the 21st Century: Building a Foundation for Success gives students the tools and confidence to think critically about the choices they make, take control of their lives, and ultimately achieve their goals.

Designed in a unique magazine format that speaks to today's student and written to meet state FACS standards, this engaging, contemporary, user-friendly first edition text focuses on shaping and sustaining the five critical and interdependent areas of responsible living: family, peers, school, work, and community.
