A cross section of the custom rigs produced by the "Greatest Name in Fire Apparatus" during this time period - with great model names like: The Eagle, Astro-Tower, Invader, Commander, Marauder, Patriot, Apollo, Meanstick, Force, Flame, Specialist, and more. While the majority of published material has focused on the Seagrave classics, little information has been available for the modern era. This volume will continue where the conventional 70th Anniversary Series left off and lead into the sophisticated machines specified by today's fire service.
