Could a new specie of human beings have started with me? What does the future hold for me and this child? Will I ever smile again? These questions and several others flooded my mind at the birth of my daughter, Grace and I thought my whole world had come to an end. I turned to the Lord and He took me through a process that gave me comfort. This book reveals the secret of that comfort. If you are going through any kind of pain in your life right now, this book will not only encourage and inspire you, but it will also show you ways to deal with the pain and receive comfort.
