Blast From The Past

Liam begins to understand the true nature of time travel. The act of time travel itself creates an alternate timeline where the history is unclear. He has to get the government's attention as they have taken his ship, and with it, his only hope of returning home. He decides to try and stop the assassination of JFK, but it goes wrong. The government take him and force him to help them with their plans. He discovers that his captain is still alive, but barely. His only hope to get back to his own time is by helping the evil government forces.
