Everything Happens for a Reason: My Journey Ronnie O'Neill

Straightforward and extraordinary, Ronnie O'Neill, in her own words, gives a story of inner strength, courage, and the will of the human spirit in surviving a brain aneurysm. This story is about leading a normal everyday life with her family until she experienced the aneurysm, that according to statistics, has limited survivors. It took having ten surgeries, and the help of family and friends, to overcome this enemy that she encountered during this ordeal. Ronnie believes everything happens for a reason and that is why she is here today to tell her story and for the reader to recognize happiness and triumph overcoming a deadly physical attribute that could happen to anyone without notice.
