The Defender Herman L. Jimerson

This epic chronicle of the life of Drew Jones, an African-American attorney who gets some hardcore experience when life goes beyond the law books and collides with the “real law” with all of its corruption, will make you wonder who the real criminals are—the accused or the legal system at large. This cliffhanger leaves you suspended between good and evil...love and hate. The Defender, a powerful masterpiece, will have you cheering for the good guys, loathing the bad guys, crying over everything in between and leave you wanting more.
