WINGS TO BE FREE - "Foreign Affairs ~ Gifts of Love" is a powerful story inspired by true events in the life of the author, Ariana La Seva, a free spirited woman of age who after years of building walls around her guarded life decides to lower her armor and rely on fate to bring people into her life regardless of age, race, or social stigma.

This feat of refraining from "selective behavior" transpires into something far more than Ariana expects - young foreign lovers, a best friend, and some chance encounters teach her about the many gifts of love, life, self-worth and forgiveness.

Memories are unleashed that force Ariana to face her past... face her fears... face herself! It enables her to heal a torrid past and find the fortitude to care for her terminally ill mother who abused and abandoned her as a child, only to reappear thirty years later.

And most unexpected of all, Ariana meets the love of her life at a time when she didn't think true love was in the cards for her. But will they be able to defy the cultural conflicts and borders that are so intent on keeping them apart?

Wings to be Free is endearing and entertaining in that it was written impromptu on a whim. It is an emotionally raw and explicit recollection of Ariana's past, cleverly entwined with the present. It's a journey of learning, sexuality, healing, and spirituality that will take the reader through a telling venture of revelry, unnerve, laughter and tears.

Note: Mature subject matter involving some harsh language, sexually explicit scenes, and situations that may be considered disturbing to some audiences.
