Steppin' Out on Sin (Urban Books) Latrese N. Carter

Jamie Clarke was once a devoted, loving wife, mother and God-fearing Christian; however, those traits quickly diminish after she endures a double dose of betrayal and deception. First, Jamie is devastated when her pastor is publicly exposed for his salacious indiscretions with a teenage member of the congregation. Then Jamie is further scarred when her husband Alonzo's hidden secrets are revealed. For weeks, Jamie is overcome with depression and grief, feeling trapped in an emotional prison. That is, until she decides to soothe her pain by turning to a lifestyle of sin. Jamie's new way of life causes her to abandon her morals and values, break her marriage vows, neglect her teenage son, and put her health at risk. It isn't until she is faced with a life or death circumstance that Jamie is forced to evaluate if she wants to regain control of her life or continue stepping out on sin.
