How to Help Your Children Survive Your Divorce Jody Beveridge, Alan Bradley

It's extraordinary that there is no other book to help parents reduce the pains of divorce for their children. Both professional authors work in the areas of family support and family law. They have deep experience of the cause-and-effect problems that relate to divorce. This book draws on the questions children ask and the feelings they hide. These are organised as sub-headings under each new topic. The book explains in clear, simple terms how to anticipate problems, avoid unnecessary harm and, of course, what action to take if things have gone wrong.
