The First Lady Selena Winston

In The First Lady, Selena Winston brings back one of her most esteemed characters, Pastor Lewis Martin who finds himself in a less than esteemed, yet compromising situation. While trying to pick up the pieces of his failed marriage, Pastor Martin lets his guard down for a woman who is an exotic dancer. The pastor attempts to help this young lady get her life in order, but what begins as the subject of his prayers soon develops into the object of his desires. To his members, she's nothing but the probable recipient of all their church offerings. They want her to disappear. But soon they all find themselves unable to cast their stones.
